ARABS STORM JERUSALEM IN WILD RIOTING

Vent Anger Over Partition with Burning, Wrecking and Shooting.

By The Associated Press

JERUSALEM, Dec. 2—Thousands of Arabs, venting their anger over the impending division of Palestine, stormed through the [illegible] of Jerusalem today—burning, wrecking and shooting for almost two hours before police and troops restored a semblance of order.

Reports of the day's casualties over the Holy Land, including confirmed and unconfirmed, listed three Jews dead and 22 Jews and six Arabs injured Property damage was heavy

Armored cars and bren gun carriers were called into play by British authorities to disperse the rioters The British were assisted by thousands of khaki clad young Jews — apparently members of Hagana self-styled Jewish defense army—who assembled in midtown Zion square Jewish volunteers—distinguished by blue arm bands—directed traffic around congested areas.

Mob Turned Back

A roadblock manned by tommygunners turned the howling mob back in Jerusalem s midtown Princess Mary s way, but rioters swept into St Julian s way, 100 yards from the King David Hotel and started smashing windows and overturning automobiles.

At least six shops were set afire and two automobiles belonging to Jewish merchants were burned

One group of Arabs, crying out "filthy Americans," hurled stones at the automobile in which this correspondent was riding, but failed to connect with their target Gunfire broke out near the U.S consulate in Mamillah road.

Two Jews were dragged from one shop from which three shots apparently had been fired into the mob A police armored car penetrated into the crowd and rescued the men, along with two other Jews but not before they had been badly beaten. The shop was wrecked

Ten Others Rescued

At least 10 other Jews were rescued from rioters by police during the melee in St Julian's way, which is lined with many fashionable Jewish stores

Two Jews were reported wounded in a mob attack on a Jewish bus near the Damascus gate in Jerusalem A Hagana patrol broke up another attack on a Jewish bus, captured the Arab attackers and turned them over to police

BREAK FRENCH RED FILIBUSTER

Communist Ejected from Assembly; Vote To Be Taken on Anti-Strike Bill.

By The Associated Press

PARIS, Dec 2—A 10-hour "silent filibuster" by Communist deputies was broken early today and the national assembly was called back into session to enact a stringent anti-strike law requested by Premier Robert Schuman to fight work stoppages paralyzing the nation

One stoppage was ended this morning when police cleared sitdown strikers from six power plants in the Paris area, permitting subways to resume operation after service had been suspended for several hours More than 2,000,000 workers remained idle, however, stalling every major industry.

Deputy Ejected

The Communists' "silent filibuster" against Schuman s anti-strike bill, which is aimed at breaking the Communist grip on the French labor movement, ended when Republican guards ejected Communist Deputy Raoul Calas from the assembly chamber

Fifty other Communist deputies who had occupied the otherwise empty chamber with Calas followed him out.

Calas refused to leave the speaker's rostrum yesterday afternoon after a vote of censure against him for urging army reservists to refuse to comply with government orders calling them to the colors The vote also directed his temporary expulsion from the assembly.

HYDRAULIC PRESS CO. REPORTS BEST MONTH

October Billings of $623,805 Shown in 9-Month Report.

Special to The Star

MT. GILEAD, Dec 2—The Hydraulic Press Manufacturing Co reports October net billings of $623,805—largest for any month this year—in its quarterly letter to shareholders made public today

However, net earnings, before federal taxes, on net billings of $3,350,276 amounted for the nine months ending September 30, 1947, to only $6,156, divided as follows $44,437 for the first quarter, $65,339 for the second quarter and a loss of $103,620 for the third quarter

All but $16,000 of this third quarter loss, the report pointed out, was occasioned by the decision of the directors to write off the remaining expenditures for intangible assets and research and development work incurred largely at the company s subsidiary, Hydro- Power, Inc These expenditures it was stated, had been made over the past year and a half in anticipation of a sales potential which has developed more slowly than expected

Sales backlog of the company as of Sept 30, stood at $2 009,743 compared with $1,894,601 on Jan 1, 1947, and $2,487,938 on Sept 30, 1946

Commenting on the company's outlook, Walter G Tucker, chairman of the board, sa d, "It is with a certain degree of optimism that we look forward to the results we hope will be obtained for the balance of 1947 The backlog of $2,009,713 with which we ended the third quarter warrants our feeling that the fourth quarter should be the best of the year Any further adjustment of assets, if necessary at the year's end, should we believe, be of a minor nature"

Marion County Extension Agent Wins Award for Farm Program

Arthur H Smith, Marion County Agricultural Extension Agent is slated today to receive the distinguished service award of the National County Agents association. Announcement of the honor will be made tonight at the annual association banquet marking the national convention in Chicago

The award is given for continued outstanding service in the development and promotion of leadership and planning in the agricultural activities of the county residents

Mr Smith who is completing his twenty-fourth year in Extension work, graduated from Ohio State University with a B S. in Agriculture in 1922. The next year he began work in Monroe county serving that community for seven years before being transferred to Washington county where he remained for the next 10 years building up leadership in the development of planned programs in the field of agriculture.

Here Since 1942

Mr. Smith was assigned to Marion county in 1942 and took over April 1 of that year, succeeding Homer Porteus.

During the past five years, the Marion county agent has been instrumental in the formation of a number of new agricultural programs in the county and the development of others already underway.

Among Mr. Smith's chief interests has been the formation of a soil conservation program within the county, a project that was approved in 1945 and got underway last year, with participation by school students. Two field days were held and are part of the regular agricultural curriculum at the present time, said to be the first in the state.

Another pet project of Mr. Smith's is the dairy service unit which was organized in August of 1946 for the twofold purpose of herd testing and artifical breeding service. The unit at the present time comprises 245 members and employs the service of two full time technicians.

PLANE FOUND, BELIEVE SOME ABOARD SAVED

U. S. Air Forces Transport Reported Wrecked Near German, French Line.

By The United Press

WEISBADEN, Germany Dec 2 —French army officers at Kaiserlautern reported today that a U S Air Forces C-47 transport, missing since Friday with 20 persons aboard, had been located in rugged country near the French-German border and they believed there were several survivors

The plane crashed, the French offices said, between Bitche, France, and Kroeppen, Germany, southwest of Pirmasens Units of the U S constabulary, with rescue teams, medical supplies and ambulances were moving south through Pirmasens en route to the scene

The U S Army rescue teams had been rushed to Kaiserlautern on the strength of a report by the pilot of a search plane that he had picked up a radio message from the wrecked plane

"I am in a rough area with trees Badly in need of help Possible to build a fire,' the message said

Calls for Signal

The pilot of the search plane asked for a light signal from the ground, so he could fix the spot The pilot said he then saw lights blinking on the ground

United Press Correspondent Wellington Long flew all night over the area with Lieut Charles A. Ross of Sebring, Fla, who shared a billet at Rheim Main airport, near Frankfurt, with the pilot on the wrecked plane

Long reported that Ross talked to the plane by radio all night as he flew patterns back and forth over the hills

Ross' plane returned to Rheim Main airport at 9 a m Two special rescue planes, loaded with rations, clothing, portable radios, medical supplies, flare pistols and each carrying a flight surgeon ready to parachute to the wreck, came back at the same time.

Make Radio Contact

The special rescue planes refueled and were ready to take off again

Planes have maintained radio contact with the wrecked ship intermittently since about 4 p m yesterday The signal is weak, although the crashed plane apparently can receive well

Long said that when Ross' plane arrived over the area last night, Ross asked the crashed plane s sender to count to five if he was on the top or side of a mountain and to say "Roger" five times if he was in a ravine

Listening on an extra pair of headphones Long heard "Roger, Roger, Roger," coming in very weakly.

Kaiserlautern is about 65 miles southwest of Frankfurt The first pilot to report he had located the wreck got no indication as to how many, if any, were killed

Those aboard the plane probably had not eaten since Friday, when they left Pisa, Italy just after noon It was only a six-hour flight to Frankfurt, and it was doubtful that any emergency rations were aboard

'Specific Proposals' Demanded on Truman's Economic Program

By The Associated Press

WASHINGTON, Dec 2—Senator Wherry (R-Neb) demanded today that President Truman lay before congress specific proposals to carry out his 10-point anti-inflation program "if he's not just talking for political purposes"

The senate's Republican whip thus picked up in the form of a challenge to Mr Truman a question by Senator Taft (R-Ohio) hinting at political implications in the President's request for standby price-wage and rationing authority.

Taft in laying down an eight-point program of his own last night, asked a Philadelphia audience,

"Is it possible that they (the Democratic administration) would like to see the present condition continue until after the November election in order that there may not be the slightest chance of a falling off in the boom so favorable to anyone in power?"

"If the President is not talking for political purposes, he will send up here forthwith a specific program," said the Nebraska senator, whose role as whip makes him an assistant party leader "We have passed the stop-gap European aid bill in the senate and we could be working on some cost of living proposals if we had anything but vague generalities from the White House "

On the other side of the capitol, Chairman Wolcott (R-Mich) of the house banking committee declared "we have heard nothing yet to justify turning our economy over to the bureaucrats"

Wolcott made this assertion to newsmen after the committee had heard Secretary of Commerce Harriman, Secretary of Treasury Snyder and Secretary of Agriculture Anderson plead for precautionary steps to prevent inflation

The senate-house economic committee, which Taft heads, arranged to hear representatives of the grain exchange on President Truman's suggestion for regulation of margins

Taft's Eight Points

In his Philadelphia speech Taft, who also heads the senate Republican policy committee and is running for his party's presidential nomination, listed an eight-point program of his own designed to encourage Americans to produce more and spend less He proposed

1 A campaign to increase productivity per man through improved machinery and "better individual work by the men," with any wage increase conditioned "on a more complete day's work "

2 A cut in government expenses and taxes

3 Balancing of exports and imports to countries outside of western Europe and confining aid to foreign nations "to specific fields which we know can be effective "

4 Holding down the increase in bank credit

5 Reducing the percentage the government guarantees on housing loans

6 Limiting consumer credit

7 A campaign to discourage spending and encourage saving particularly cutting the purchase of scarce foods "by those who can afford to waste less and eat less "

8 Carrying out "with discretion" the congressional obligation to support farm prices

AID BILL FACES HOUSE HURDLE

But It's Over the Hump with Senate Approval by 83 to 6 Vote.

By The Associated Press

WASHINGTON, Dec. 2—Over the hump of the senate approval, the administration's $597,000,000 stop gap European aid bill faced potent house demands today that it be pared by some $67,000,000

The measure cleared the senate by an 83 to 6 vote late yesterday in substantially the form asked by President Truman two weeks earlier, but it still has a rocky road ahead.

Even the senate version is $7,000 000 more than the house foreign affairs committee has recommended. And the house group's total includes $60.000 000 for China which the senate measure did not include

"Our fight will be to take out the $60,000,000 for China," said a high house Republican who declined to permit the use of his name "Even the President did not request emergency aid for China and the senate provided for assistance only to Italy, France and Austria "

Republicans were virtually unanimous in their insistence the stop-gap bill contain a provision not in the senate measure, stating congress is not committing itself to continued foreign aid

Many Republicans, including some of the top members, believe the long-range, Marshall plan for European recovery must be trimmed sharply from current estimates ranging up to $20 000 000,000

The whole issue of foreign aid —both short and long term—was due to be reviewed at a confer-

FRUITLESS SEARCH MADE FOR PLANE

Train Crew Reports Seeing Explosion Near Marysville.

Special to The Star

MARYSVILLE, Dec 2 — The state highway patrol office at Columbus recalled its cruisers at noon today after the patrol and Union county authorities had failed to find an airplane that a freight train crew had claimed to have seen crash about three miles northwest of here

Railroad towerman Jess Arnold, stationed at Marysville found a note thrown from the caboose of No 2149, a southbound New York Central freight train saying that the crew had seen a plane explode and crash near Otter at 5.20 a. m.

Union county Sheriff Homer Roosa and state highway patrolmen from Columbus and other districts serving the Marysville area combed the territory for nearly six hours with no trace of the wreckage found. The sheriff had planned enlisting the aid of a private pilot Robert Dodge owner of two light planes to aid in the search for the reportedly crashed ship.

Questioned by the Columbus state patrol office after the freight train reached Columbus, Harold Martin of that city, the fireman, insisted that he and the train crew had seen the plane explode and crash.

NEW ATOM WEAPONS SPROUT IN ENIWETOK

By The Associated Press

WASHINGTON, Dec 2 — Projected atomic tests behind a curtain of absolute secrecy in the remote Pacific suggested today American scientists may be preparing new weapons based on the same terrible power as the atom bomb

A terse announcement from the atomic energy commission disclosed the armed forces are making tiny Eniwetok atoll—1 500 miles from the nearest large land mass into a closed-off proving grounds for research on "new fundamental data"

What goes on there, the commission said, is expected to result in advances in "peaceful as well as in military applications of atomic energy"

Asked whether a reference to "atomic weapons" means this country's arsenal now includes a nuclear fission running mate for the atom bomb, one official replied

"You can draw your own conclusions"

Unlike the surface and underwater atom bomb tests at Bikini atoll in the summer of 1946, which were covered by several hundred reporters and foreign observers, the new experiments will be under "full security restrictions," last night's announcement said

The area will be shut off from the world and security council of the United Nations will be notified to this effect, as provided in the UN trusteeship agreement for the former Japanese-mandated islands

The 145 native inhabitants of the atoll islands of Aomon and Bijiri will leave for a permanent new home which they will select.

Bikini was unsuitable for the new experiments, the commission said, because it lacked land surface enough to contain "the instrumentation necessary to the scientific observations which must be made."

Eniwetok itself has only about 2¼ square miles of land. One big reason for choosing it, the announcement explained, is its isolation. There are hundreds of miles of open seas "in the direction in which winds might carry radioactive particles" It lies about half way between Hawaii and the Philippines, and the closest big land area is New Guinea, 1,500 miles to the southwest.

Both Uranium And Plutonium in Weapons

By The Associated Press

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J., Dec. 2 —David E. Lilienthal, chairman of the atomic energy commission, disclosed today the United States now is producing new atomic weapons from both uranium and plutonium.

"Both of these products are used for atomic weapons in current production and under design at commission laboratories," Lilienthal said.

He did not explain whether the new weapons are bombs, such as were dropped on Hiroshima and Nagasaki, or represent a new military application of atomic power. Such details are classed as "secret."

W. H. MORGAN FATALLY HURT IN ACCIDENT

Mishap Happens at Superior and Prospect Streets, Unprotected by Stop Light.

Wesley Harrison Morgan, 61, of 618 Cherry street, died enroute to City hospital last night of injuries suffered when he was hit by a Great Lakes Greyhound bus as he was crossing South Prospect street at Superior street.

Mr. Morgan was night fireman at the Marion cemetery greenhouse and apparently was on his way to work when hit by the bus at about 6 20 p. m.

According to the police report witnesses said he walked in front of the bus as he was crossing Prospect street from the northwest corner to the northeast corner of Superior street He was hit by the left fog light of the northbound bus and was knocked in front of the bus and to the curb on the east side of the street about 18 feet away.

The bus driver, Curtis E. Henson, 35, of Columbus said he did not see the man until he stepped into the path of the bus, and that he swerved to the right in an effort to avoid hitting him. The bus was going about 25-30 miles a hour and was arriving in Marion from Columbus by way of Prospect There is no traffic light at the Prospect-Superior intersection

Third Fatality This Year

After the accident, Marion's third traffic fatality this year, the bus driver stopped and called a Boyd and Uncapher ambulance and the city police before proceeding to the bus station.

A city policeman and a nurse who checked Mr Morgan's condition before he was taken to the hospital in the ambulance said they found a weak spurting pulse, but he was pronounced dead upon arrival at the hospital by Dr J G McNamara

The only external injuries apparent upon first examination were abrasions about the head Dr E H Morgan, coroner, examining the body this morning, said Morgan died of a broken neck, severe concussion of the brain, and severe contusions of the right shoulder and arm

Police Chief Marks said that the bus driver was able to stop within 60 feet after hitting the pedestrian, indicating that the bus could not have been going very fast The bus had stopped inside the corporation limit to let out a passenger

Marks said there was no evidence of negligence on the part of the bus driver

Agitation for Stop Light

Residents living near the scene of the accident have long been urging the installation of a traffic light at the South Prospect-Superior intersection but have had no success as yet Bert Myers who operates a drug store at the intersection, started a petition about a year and a half ago which was sent to city and state authorities who made a traffic check there early this spring but apparently found insufficient justification for erecting a trafic light there.

E. O. Uncapher, city service director, said two traffic checks had been made early this spring at the intersection, one when school was in session, and one when it was not. The checks were made by the city and the state highway department.

The census of traffic was considerably lower than that which is considered necessary for the erection of a traffic light, he said. Most of the traffic at the intersection goes along South Prospect, he said. Pedestrian traffic was checked along with vehicle traffic.

Street lights lit the area at the time of the accident.

Born in Linworth, O.

Mr. Morgan was born March 18, 1886, in Linworth O., to Spencer Morgan and Mary Etta Poole Morgan. He had been a painter before working for the Marion cemetery. He had been a resident of Marion for 20 years.

Mr. Morgan is survived by two brothers, Fred of Linworth, and Frank of Shadeville, and three sisters, Mrs. Harry Lowry of 560 North Prospect street, and Mrs Fannie Snouffer and Mrs. Lida Isenberg both of Linworth.

Funeral services will be held Thursday at 2 p. m. in the Boyd and Uncapher funeral home, with Dr. Edwin A. Brown officiating. Burial will be made in Marion cemetery.

Friends may call at the funeral home after 8 p. m. tonight.

STASSEN GIVES TALK AT OHIO CONFERENCE

By The Associated Press

COLUMBUS, O., Dec 2 — Harold E. Stassen, president of the National Council of Religious Education, today urged a conference of churchmen to help revitalize community life in America.

The former Minnesota governor, who is a candidate for the Republican presidential nomination, said in a speech prepared for the conference on community and religious education:

"I trust that this conference in a very definite manner analyzes the constructive forces that exist in our communities; dissects the factors of community disintegration and demoralization, and then develops and sets forth steps that can be taken to mobilize the assets and decrease the liabilities in a modern American community."

Stassen said the war had left a wide range of community problems He continued:

"Our concern for worldwide problems should never obstruct our vision of the questions close at home. The purpose of this conference might be broadly stated as one of finding the way to increase the constructive impact of the forces of religious education upon the communities in which we live."

Stassen asked conferees to consider "definite means and manner by which the leadership of our churches can rally together constructive forces, the way in which these can carry on a continuing basis, and the kind of results that a community council could expect."

COLUMBUS, O, Dec 2 — A church leader declared today that community life in America is waning, that democracy is imperilled as a result, and that the church must combat the problem.

By The Associated Press

SEATTLE, Dec. 2—A double-edged inquiry into the crash of an Alaska Airlines transport, and the resulting death of eight persons, continued today with Leon D. Cuddeback, civil aeronautics administration regional chief, asserting that investigators have yet to determine.

1. Whether the plane landed within a safe stopping distance from the end of the runway,

2. Whether there was any functional failure of the large aircraft.

The plane, a DC-4 inbound from Alaska, overran the end of the Seattle-Tacoma airport runway, Sunday, plowed about 175 feet through mud and plunged over a sharp bank onto a passing automobile

Pilot James E Farris, 37, of Seattle, yesterday attributed the crash to failure of the plane's hydraulic brakes

TEST SUIT FILED ON JUDGE'S RENT RULING

By The Associated Press

CLEVELAND, O, Dec. 2— A Cleveland apartment owner today filed a suit in federal court testing a Nov 24 decision by Federal Judge Paul Jones that the housing and rental act of 1947 was unconstitutional.

Mrs Hazel L Smith asked for an injunction to prevent the Cleveland area rent director, Karl Duldner, from enforcing an order for her to reduce the rents of 15 living units in an apartment at 7801 Euclid avenue.

Judge Jones held congress had gone beyond its authority in passing the act which extended rent controls through next February, and declared it lacked power to apply war-time control measures when there was "peace in fact."

Mrs. Smith said she spent $6,000 renovating the suites in her apartment building a year ago and had been charging $10 to $16 a week per furnished unit, with light, gas and heat provided She said that on Nov. 20 she was informed she could charge no more than $6 and $7 per unit.

DECLARES U.S. BOOKS ARE KEPT BADLY

By The Associated Press

WASHINGTON, Dec. 2 — A former official of the general accounting office declared today the government keeps its books so badly that "no one yet knows" whether it had a surplus or a deficit in its income last year.

T. Coleman Andrews, former director of the GAO corporate audits division, said that actually the "budget surplus" of $757,000,000 announced by the treasury when the 1947 fiscal year ended last June 30 was "just a balance of cash."

Even businesses which are broke and operating at a deficit usually have some cash on hand, Andrews said in a statement prepared for a house executive expenditures subcommittee.

Andrews said he was told the supposed budget surplus "did not include billions of dollars of disbursements by the Army and Navy that were made prior to June 30 but not reported to the treasury until later."

The same was true, he added, of unpaid vouchers "covering more billions of dollars for goods and services purchased and used by the hundreds of departments, agencies and other organizations of the government during the fiscal year."

14 MORE CAUGHT IN WHITE SLAVE RAIDS

By The Associated Press

HAGERSTOWN, Md, Dec. 2—Fourteen persons were arrested last night on charges of violating or conspiring to violate the white slave traffic act, the federal bureau of investigation announced after conducting raids in four states

Fred Hallford, FBI special agent in charge of the Baltimore office, said the arrests were made in Maryland, Virginia, Indiana and Pennsylvania in connection with transportation of women to Hagerstown for purposes of prostitution.

Three of the arrests were made here, he said, one at Logansport, Ind.; one at Muncie, Ind.; one at Dauphin, Pa., and five at Lynchburg, Va

Hallford said the bureau had placed a detainer against a fourteenth person in custody on a local charge at Indianapolis.

Five men and nine women were named in the charges, Hallford said The Lynchburg group, he said, included a man, his wife and three of her sisters.

In Washington officials said one of the defendants transported his wife from Indiana to Hagerstown on a motorcycle in order to share her earnings, which were estimated to have reached $350 a week at times.

Another was described as the mother of five children who had been placed in orphanages.

Last night's sweep followed a series of raids executed recently at Ironton, O, and nearby communities.

benefit of Marion county residents include the extension of the Northeast Agricultural and Poultry Co-Op of New Washington into Marion county where 55 members have been enlisted, and the development of the Ashley Lamb Pool, both of which have been brought on during the last few months.

Other programs developed during the past few years include Outlook Training meetings where thirty county grange and farm bureau members as leaders disseminate latest facts and information on agricultural trends and activities and the Older Rural Youth Group, organized for those who have grown out of the 4-H Club program but still show interest in associations for agricultural interests and activities.

4-H Clubs at Peak

In the 4-H club line, total membership reached a peak during the past year of 600 members, belonging to 21 home-making clubs and 17 agricultural clubs. The 38 clubs were supervised by 56 advisors During the current year the ag clubs are busy on 356 projects as compared to 222 listed in 1942.

The expanding program development in the county resulted in the assignment of an associate agent to Marion county last year, with Lloyd Lutz also actively engaged in extension work as the county activities increased.

SHOP FOREMAN ACCUSED IN FIRE FATAL TO SIX

By The Associated Press

PHILADELPHIA, Dec. 2—Detective Sgt. John J. McEnroe said today Stanley Drust, 57-year-old shop foreman, has been charged with manslaughter by fire in connection with a blaze that swept through a dormitory for homeless men here, bringing death to six and injury to 17 others.

The fire early yesterday whipped through the interior of the four-story building of the Volunteers of America, Inc, in North Philadelphia, as 60 homeless men —some of them employed as street corner Santa Clauses — slept in dormitories on the second and third floors.

McEnroe said Drust was charged after he signed a statement in which he said he had been smoking on the first floor of the building shortly before the fire broke out.

LAMARRE DECLARES HE'LL TELL JURY ALL

By The Associated Press

WASHINGTON, Dec. 2—Bleriot H. Lamarre, self-styled "dummy" president of a war contract firm, went before a federal grand jury today promising to "tell all" about his dealings with Maj. Gen. Bennett E. Meyers.

Before entering the jury room Lamarre told reporters he plans a court suit to recover $10,000 he claims the retired general owes him

The grand jury is investigating testimony before a senate committee that General Meyers realized more than $150,000 profits from the concern Lamarre headed.

"I'm ready to tell the grand jury all I know—without reservation," Lamarre told reporters.

The 35-year old witness told the senate war investigating committee that he kicked back most of his salary to General Meyers, wartime deputy air forces procurement chief, retaining only about $50 a week as president of the Aviation Electric- Company, at Dayton, O.

His prospective $10,000 court claim against Meyers, Lamarre told newsmen, is in the hands of Robert C Knee, Dayton attorney. Lamarre said it will be based on the $20,000 realized in liquidating the Aviation Electric Co. Lamarre claims he was to have received half of this settlement.

"I sent General Meyers a letter on Sept. 6," Lamarre said, "asking him to return my money. The only replies I've received have been stalls—all stalls"

"WATCHDOG" WAGE BOARD IS PROPOSED

By The Associated Press

WASHINGTON, Dec. 2 — A wage board to "watch and report" on pay pressures within industries where price freezes might be invoked under President Truman's anti-inflation program was proposed today by Secretary of Labor Schwellenbach

The cabinet officer declared in testimony prepared for the house banking committee that demands for a "third round" of postwar wage boosts can be averted only by "prompt and firm action" to cut the cost of living.

Such action, Schwellenbach said, should be in the form of congressional approval of Mr Truman's entire 10-point domestic program, including extension of rent and export controls, reimposition of consumer credit curbs and power to impose limited controls over both prices and wages.

Given that authority, the secretary said he believes the administration will be able to halt the inflationary spiral through voluntary measures.

But he said a close watch will have to be kept over the wage-price relationships in key industries. Then, in the "very few cases" where wage curbs might be needed, the board assigned to the watchdog task could be used to apply them.

CANTON, O, Dec. 2 — The board of directors of Brush-Moore Newspapers, Inc., in meeting Monday, adopted two resolutions memorializing the respective contributions of Charles D Simeral and N. Edward Worstall in development of the Steubenville Herald-Star and The Brush-Moore group of Ohio papers.

With respect to Mr. Simeral the resolution says in part:

"Through his judicious and professional custody of The Steubenville Herald-Star from the date of its purchase from J. J. Gill in 1905 to the date of its sale to Louis H. Brush, Roy D Moore and William H. Vodrey in 1925, Mr. Simeral elevated the newspaper to a high standard of excellence, and

"Be it resolved, that this expression of appreciation be spread upon the records in memory of his cheerful personality, his clarity of understanding, his sound business judgment and his thorough cooperation in the conduct of the affairs of Brush-Moore Newspapers, Inc, and as a continuing inspiration to the surviving members of this board."

With respect to Mr. Worstall as personal friend and editorial associate. the board's resolution said:

"He gave freely and fully of his time to the newspaper he loved and to the community in every form of civic service to which his able judgment and untiring efforts constantly were called, and

"Be it resolved, that this expression of appreciation be spread upon the records in memory of his long association with the late Charles D. Simeral and then with Brush-Moore Newspapers at The Herald-Star, in memory of his extraordinary ability as a news analyst and editorial writer, his acknowledged competency in evaluating and handling news, his success in teaching many young men and women who served under him to become well qualified in the newspaper profession, his ready discernment and truthful exposure of sham and pretense, and finally in memory of his keen wit, his infectious humor and his grand qualities as a companion"

POSSIBLE DEFERMENT OF BONUS TAX SEEN

By The Associated Press

COLUMBUS, O., Dec. 2—Gov. Thomas J. Herbert said today that if the legislature appropriated an additional $20,000,000 for soldier bonuses, the taxation of real estate to finance the payments would be postponed for five years.

And, he told newsmen, if the bonus payments do not amount to the authorized $300,000,000, there is a possibility that no special taxes will be levied on real estate.

The governor, preparing his message for the special session of the legislature opening tomorrow, added another subject to its agenda.

He will ask the legislature to authorize school boards to increase teachers salaries without imposing additional duties on the teachers.

He explained that the law prohibits boards from increasing salaries in the middle of the school year without adding to duties Numerous cities have voted tax levies to increase the salaries Jan. 1

The appropriation of an additional $20,000,000 in state funds to the bonus would bring to $225,000,000 the amount which the legislature has contributed or promised to contribute to world war II veterans.

Ohio voters, through a constitutional amendment, have authorized the levying of a tax on real estate, if it is necessary, to raise sufficient funds to pay out $300,000,000 in bonuses.

WHO'S THE MAGICIAN?

By The Associated Press

CLEVELAND, Dec. 2 — When Pharmacist Isadore Rich sought to make change last night in the Kay Gee Drug store, he found the cash register containing $30 had disappeared. Not only that, he told police, two comb, brush and mirror sets were found missing from a showcase. Neither Rich nor the two clerks also on duty could recall seeing a suspicious looking person in the store. The cash register was estimated to weigh about 60 pounds.

OHIO VETS' BONUS STEP NEARER TODAY

By The Associated Press

COLUMBUS, O, Dec. 2—Distribution of Ohio's $300,000,000 world war two bonus was a step or two closer today.

The state sinking fund commission, which handles the distribution, appointed a bond counsel at its meeting last night and authorized the new bonus director, Adj. Gen. Chester W. Goole, to negotiate a lease for bonus headquarters and proceed with employment of clerical help to assist in preliminary work.

A law firm headed by Ed D. Schorr, Cincinnati, former Ohio Republican chairman was appointed counsel. The firm — Schorr, Chastang, Edwards and Stanley of Columbus — will receive $625 monthly.

Coble was authorized to negotiate a lease for the fifth floor of a building at 293 East Long street, Columbus, and to take option for additional quarters on the fourth floor. He also was given a green light to begin renovation of the quarters when the lease is signed.

POST-WAR international philanthropy certainly has its odd mo[illegible]

[illegible] Italy two small war-[illegible] towns in the beachhead [illegible] thousands of U. S. [illegible] buried—Anzio and Nettuno quarrel bitterly over the [illegible] of $100,000 in American [illegible]

[illegible] two stories point some kind [illegible] on the spirit of giving [illegible] the spirit of sharing.

[illegible] first consider the case of Horkin and his eight-year-[illegible] Portaslain, familiar to [illegible] of New [illegible] visitors [illegible] taken [illegible] through [illegible] park in [illegible] old-[illegible] Hanson [illegible]

BOYLE

[illegible] Portaslain [illegible] name, Horkin, who had [illegible] brooding [illegible] hunger [illegible] Europe, decided to slaughter this horse he [illegible] pickle the meat and turn [illegible] to an organization sending [illegible] table contributions to Europe. He knew that horsemeat is [illegible] there now in some [illegible] with the coming of winter," he said. "I was convinced that thousands would die."

A practical man with experience in slaughtering animals in his native county Mayo, Ireland, Horkin decided to do the job himself.

SO SATURDAY NIGHT he took his horse into the basement of a riding academy, tied it to the bottom of an elevator and then ran the elevator up to the first floor, thus raising the horse on its hind legs.

He stunned it with a hammer, slit its throat, and spent 12 hours skinning Portaslain, butchering her and putting the meat in brine.

Arrested on a charge of slaughtering without a health department permit, the 39-year-old bachelor told police who pointed out he had destroyed his own means of livelihood:

"I can get along without the $8 or $9 a day I make from the cab."

But he was sorry about one thing. His one-man European relief project had caused him to miss church for the first time in 30 years.

"I never miss church on Sundays," he said.

HOWEVER MISGUIDED his act, Horkin's simple sincerity stands in decided contrast to the spirit shown in the controversy raging in Italy between the mayors of Anzio and Nettuno.

The two towns are adjacent beach resorts and ancient rivals.

Recently two upper New York state towns—Dunkirk and Fredonia—raised $100,000 in good will gifts of food, clothing and other supplies for battered Anzio.

Gloom-ridden citizens of Nettuno, convinced their town had carried the brunt of the Allied landing more than Anzio, sent Mayor Mario de Franceschi to ask for a share of the American gifts.

De Franceschi reported that the Anzio mayor, Malvito Vecchiarelli, rebuffed Nettuno's request and added insult to injury by declaring the gifts had been made to Anzio "not because Anzio is the location of an American cemetery, but because the people of Dunkirk probably like this town better than others."

INFORMED OF THE controversy, Mayor Walter F. Murray of Dunkirk, N. Y., said it was an "unfortunate situation" but that "I don't know what can be done about it."

There is an interesting postscript, too, to hack driver Horkin's sacrifice of Portaslain. The horse that died to feed Europe.

The meat was destroyed by the health department here.

Your Good Health

By DR. HERMAN N. BUNDESEN

Disorder Needing Prompt Care

IF a child complains of burning and pain on emptying the bladder, he should be taken to the doctor at once because such symptoms may indicate inflammation either of the bladder or of that part of the kidney in which the urine collects before it empties into the bladder.

The first is known as cystitis, the second as pyelitis, and either may be caused by a variety of germs. Hence, the treatment will depend on what germs are causing the trouble.

If these conditions are caused by the staphylococcus, penicillin is usually employed in the treatment. The penicillin must be given by injection into a muscle or taken by mouth.

If the infection is produced by a germ known as bacillus proteus, streptomycin seems to be the ideal drug to use in the treatment of the condition.

In general, other varieties of germs are controlled by three main groups of drugs. These are the sulfonamide drugs, mandelic acid, and hexamine.

The sulfonamide preparations can be given satisfactorily by mouth. Relatively small doses produce a sufficient quantity of the drug in the urine to overcome the infection. These drugs are particularly useful when the infection is due to colon bacilli. A course of treatment lasting from six to ten day is usually sufficient.

The mandelic acid is given in the form of combinations known as mandelates. They are only effective when the urine is acid, so that in some cases it may be necessary to give ammonium cloride with them, which makes the urine more acid. Mandelic acid is also effective against the colon bacilli, certain types of staphylococci and streptococci. The usual course of treatment lasts from one to two weeks.

Hexamine, also, is effective only when the urine is acid. It does not appear to be as effective in the cystitis and pyelitis as the sulfonamide drugs or the mandelic acid.

Whatever form of treatment is employed, it is necessary to check the results of the treatment by determining whether germs are present in the urine. If the infection has been eliminated, the germs will disappear.

If the urinary infection cannot be overcome by the urinary drugs, it may indicate that there is some condition present which is blocking the normal flow of the urine. Such conditions usually require study by means of the cystoscope, a tube made up of lenses and a light, which can be inserted directly into the bladder, thereby making it possible to study the bladder. At times surgery is required to effect a cure.

Of course, these inflammations are not by any means limited to children. They may affect people of any age and, if they are allowed to go untreated, may result in serious illness.

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS

R. K.: I have so much pain from varicose veins that I am almost a cripple. Could you advsie we what to do for such a case?

Answer: The use of exercise and massage, and the wearing of an elastic bandage are helpful in relieving and preventing varicose veins. Sometimes these veins are removed by operation. The injection treatment is also beneficial.

Your physician, after careful study, will determine just what type of treatment is best suited for your case.

PROGRESSIVE CLASS MEETS

Mr. and Mrs. George Thomas entertained the Progressive class of the Prospect Baptist church Monday night, Nov. 24, at their home at Prospect. Devotions on the subject, "Thanksgiving," were conducted by Mrs. Paul Kyle. During the social hour, William Emberton showed motion pictures of the class taken in October, and contests were in charge of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Mounts. The next meeting will be a potluck supper in the church social rooms Dec. 29.

MARSHALL, MOLOTOV TO HOLD MEETING

By The Associated Press

LONDON, Dec. 2—Secretary of State Marshall, apparently anxious for a private conversation with Russian Foreign Minister V M. Molotov, accepted today an invitation from Molotov for luncheon Friday.

The luncheon will afford the two their first opportunity for direct discussion of U S and Russian problems since the Moscow meetings early this year, when Molotov attended Marshall's conference with Prime Minister Stalin.

Molotov earlier declined an invitation to have lunch with Marshall at the U S embassy Monday. American diplomats here for the Big Four foreign ministers conference were puzzled by Molotov's rejection Soviet informants said simply that it had not been convenient for Molotov to keep the date on Monday and that Molotov would see Marshall very soon.

Marshall entertained British Foreign Secretary Bevin and a group of American and British zone officials from Germany at a luncheon today at the embassy

The Big Four were to meet later today, presumably to continue their discussion of the best way to write a German peace treaty.

Diplomats discounted the prospect of the council completing an Austrian treaty, saying there appeared to be no basis for agreement

Manufacturers Council Holds Luncheon Meeting

The Manufacturers Council of the Marion Chamber of Commerce held a luncheon meeting Monday at the Hotel Harding. A general discussion of factory operations was conducted by Edgar W Barnhart of the General Excavator Co, chairman of the council. It was disclosed that in a majority of Marion industries no critical shortages are being experienced at the present time Twenty-three members attended the meeting.

U. S. farm production rose 25 per cent between 1939 and 1944.

Palestine Tension Grows

OUTBREAKS of Arab violence in the Holy Land have followed the United Nations vote to partition Palestine. They may be the forerunner of more serious trouble, for the Moslem world is angered as it rarely has been in modern times.

Now that it has made its most important decision, the UN is confronted with the task of enforcing it. There are no international troops; the British are interested only in getting out; to place enforcement with the Jews in the Holy Land would be the surest way to invoke bloody war.

One favorable circumstance is that all the major powers, including Russia, voted for partition, so that the Arab states lack a powerful ally in opposing the edict. Had Russia been on the other side in this vote, the resulting intrigue and jockeying for power might have sent the war of nerves past the breaking point.

The UN machinery has operated slowly and carefully in arriving at a Holy Land decision. The recommendation of a committee of neutral delegates is the fairest and most practicable proposal it was possible to obtain. If they march into combat, the Arabs will be opposing a world tribunal which lacks the power to force compliance with its decision. On the other hand, the Arab armies of some 130,000 poorly equipped troops aren't sufficient to launch a full-scale war in the face of world opinion.

This ominous situation wasn't precipitated by the UN. Without the UN, or with any alternative decision it could have made, the same explosive ingredients would still be present. The UN has chosen what it believes to be the fairest solution.

December Sport

NOW THAT the football season is over, except for an assortment of bowl games, the time is at hand for picking the all-this and all-that teams. And the greatest of these is the all-America.

The all-America team originated back in the days when football was played by Yale, Harvard, Princeton, Rutgers, Chicago, Michigan and few other schools. Its originator was Walter Camp, an old Yale man, bridge expert, author and football enthusiast who used to see all the principal teams in action during the season. He might have concentrated on bridge he had known what he was starting.

Football has become such a widely-played game that any individual or organization which undertakes to pick the best has a rare brand of confidence. It takes nice judgment to decide that a right guard in Florida is better than a right guard in Oregon, not to mention a right guard who plays for Southwest Tennessee Teachers and never gets his name in the big city papers.

The all-America teams deserve to be filed in the same niche with the 1947 list of America's 10 best-dressed women, the list of the "10 manliest American men" and the Hollywood cutie who has been judged Miss Oomph of 1947.

A Year of UMT

LAST WEEK the Army experimental universal military training battalion at Fort Knox finished its first year—a year which saw the plan put aside in congress despite a favorable recommendation by a presidential committee of educators, churchmen and businessmen.

While public opinion polls show substantial majorities in favor of UMT, its opponents are voluble, and some of them, like Senator Taft, are powerful. They question UMT's value, see it as a plot by the military to perpetuate fat appropriations, depict it as a proposal designed to corrupt or make automatons of American youth. There are some who say the atomic bomb and other new weapons have made armies superfluous, although no military authority in any nation has said such a thing.

Proponents of UMT support it because they see it as the best guarantee of safety for the future. If they had a better one they would bring it forward. While they visualize the next war, if it ever should come, as a mechanized combat, they also see the need of trained, disciplined personnel to take charge in disaster areas.

Those who oppose UMT take on a serious responsibility. Twice within the last 30 years we have had frantic mobilizations, but fortunately time was on our side. If there is a next time, we shall not again be vouchsafed that grace period.

Where Does It Come From?

By George E. Sokolsky

Nation Can't Eat Cake and Have It, Too.

MONEY, it has been said, does not grow on trees. Of course, if you are raising apples or oranges, it does. That is the trouble with most generalizations: they are only true as long as they happen not to be untrue from a particular point of view.

It is like that process called "common sense." Whose common sense, yours or mine? Lecomte Du Nouy, in his magnificent study of fallacy, "Human Destiny," has this to say of common sense:

SOKOLSKY

"... Common sense cannot be trusted. It is common sense that leads us to think that the earth is flat; that two plumb lines are parallel (they are both directed toward the center of the earth and consequently form an angel) ..."

He adds:

"If, therefore, the starting point, the premise, of a reasoning is false, the conclusion will, necessarily, logically, be false ..."

The particular fallacy to which we address ourselves now is the worldwide general assumption that the United States is so rich that it can pour out its wealth in endless profligacy and not go broke. The war cost us about $300,000,000,000. And we have been spending like madmen since the war's end. For instance, about $20,000,000,000 has gone into Europe and Asia and there is little to show for it.

We spend with equal profligacy at home. The President makes a terrific holler about high prices, but the government keeps basic agricultural prices high by subsidies and government-buying. Is it a case of the left eye refusing to see what the right eye sees or is the mouth being more speedy than the hand? Put it whichever way you like, this country spent $13,600,000,000 on farm subsidies between 1934 and 1946 and that amount will rise to $15,200,000,000 by next July.

True, if you are a farmer, you want subsidies. If you are a senator or a representative from a farm state, you will shriek for farm subsidies while, at the same time, you will demand that the price of manufactured goods come down. And all the time you will know that you are a false prophet and a demagogue because that cost of food (often as a labor cost) goes into manufactured goods which runs about 85 per cent labor costs. Therefore, when you demand subsidies for farm products, you ipso facto demand high prices for manufactured goods. Of course, you deny that on the general fallacy of common sense, but the figures do not uphold that kind of common sense. They simply uphold the fact that someone is exceedingly common in the use of his senses.

The same is true of the foreign aid called the Marshall plan. In Europe, they call it ERP, meaning the European Relief Plan. Whether it is called the Marshall plan or ERP, it comes to the same thing, about $20,000,000,000. Maybe we have to do that, too. Maybe there is no way out. But let us be absolutely honest about it. If we send $20,000,000,000 out of the country for relief, we shall have to have scarcity here and high prices. That is certain.

Proper Basis of Appeal

So, the appeal ought to be on that basis, because whatever is sent out of the country cannot remain in it. We already suffer scarcity because of the backlog from the war years. If exports amounting to $20,000,000,000 are added to the scarcity, goods must become more scarce and prices must become higher. What is the use of shouting about lower prices as part of a $20,000,000,000 export program? The two are incongruous. They do not add up.

Instead we should be told the truth, which is that it is the judgment of our government and Senator Vandenberg that it is essential for political purposes that certain countries be subsidized by the United States in order to counteract Russian policy in those countries. To achieve that political end, it is necessary for the American people to tax themselves twice: once, by actually paying high taxes to the government; and the second time, by paying higher prices for the goods they buy and for the things they need and use. That is the truthful statement of the case, but the politicos garb it in fulsome language.

Another Noble Experiment Fails

In Albany, Ga., the city commission has repealed a municipal ordinance against ogling, or close scrutiny of the female sex, on grounds that "it is no longer any use."

Was it ever?

Ogling began when Eve picked a fig-leaf and came forth in the first new look.

Ogling will continue so long as the male of the species has vision and the female has a make-up kit.

Ogling is the great American pastime, a year-round diversion in which gentlemen may participate long after advancing years have rendered them unfit for croquet and other more vigorous sports.

The Albany ordinance was probably unconstitutional in the first place, freedom to ogle being one of man's inalienable rights and specifically covered by the clause on life, liberty and the pursuit of the opposite sex.

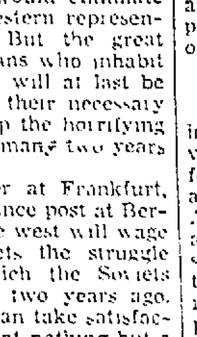
Women may have that new look ... but men are still giving them that old one.

Farewell To Berlin

By Joseph Alsop

BERLIN

THE Americans here are a trifle nervous. In the new German pattern that will emerge after the London conference, the Soviets will almost certainly attempt to drive the representatives of the West out of Berlin. They may be expected to employ all methods short of war. But General Lucius D. Clay has let it be known that he and his staff will only be removed from their posts by main force. Thus the foreign conquerors, who have lived perhaps too easily and comfortably among these ruins, will suddenly be transformed into a beleaguered garrison.



ALSOP

Somewhere in western Germany, meanwhile, a provisional German government will almost surely be established. The probable capital is Frankfurt. There will be no separate peace with Germany in the technical sense, since that would eliminate the reasons for western representation at Berlin. But the great majority of Germans who inhabit the Western zones will at last be permitted to play their necessary part in cleaning up the horrifying mess which is Germany two years after the war.

From the center at Frankfurt, and from the advance post at Berlin, the men of the west will wage against the Soviets the struggle for Germany which the Soviets themselves began two years ago. No sensible men can take satisfaction in the fact that nothing but a miracle at London—a turn of events so violent and unexpected as almost to require the direct intervention of Providence — can prevent this outcome.

For this outcome means the division of Germany and the world. Yet, equally, no sensible man can fail to prefer this outcome to the prolongation of the present situation in Germany, which would constitute a bitter indictment of our political wisdom and common humanity.

These and Other Thoughts

Such are the thoughts that fill the mind of any visitor preparing to say farewell to Berlin. Forming a sort of counterpoint to them are certain other thoughts, concerning the nature of the vital struggle now about to be engaged here.

Victory is essential. The existing westward orientation of the German people must be maintained. And the first thing Americans must realize is that we cannot solve the German problem in what may be called a Taft-Hartley act frame of mind. Not long ago, Colonel Frank Howley, a leading American officer in the administration of Berlin, saw fit to address the Germans on the "free enterprise system" and its virtues. His little talk, in the midst of this hideous devastation, was about as appropriate as a lecture on the importance of a balanced, high-calory diet in the midst of an Indian famine.

It is important not to drivel. It is more than important; it is necessary, to understand that without the support of German labor in the west zones, our effort in Germany will surely be defeated. On the German labor unions, which we have handled stupidly from the first, the Soviets and their Communist agents have concentrated their main drive. Thus far, the drive has been resisted. Communist representation in the Ruhr works councils declined slightly in the recent elections. But if we pursue a policy opposed to the German workers and to their objectives, the Communists will win in the end. If they gain the German unions, there will be an end of all hope of the revived production which is Germany's only way out.

Haircuts Ordered for All

On this head, there are disquieting signs. An American general, visiting a plant producing goods for the occupation forces, orders all the workers to have haircuts. And this pompously silly order is actually carried out, despite a strike threat. Or, in another plant, the workers desire to discuss with management the employment of prisoners — something that no American union would even tolerate. And the local American military government officers accept the contention of the plant managers that this natural desire for labor safeguards is "Communistic."

Nor are these indications of attitude all that is disquieting. The new Ruhr Coal Control defers nationalization of the Ruhr mines, and gives the major share of responsibility for running them to the same hard-faced, hog-jawed men who have run the Ruhr in the past. Labor cannot like that. Again, in Hesse, the people vote for nationalization of basic industries, and the American military government obstructs their will. That must deeply discourage the whole non-Communist Left of Germany.

This sort of thing is impractical. That is the real complaint to be made against it. Literal execution of the American directive, approv-

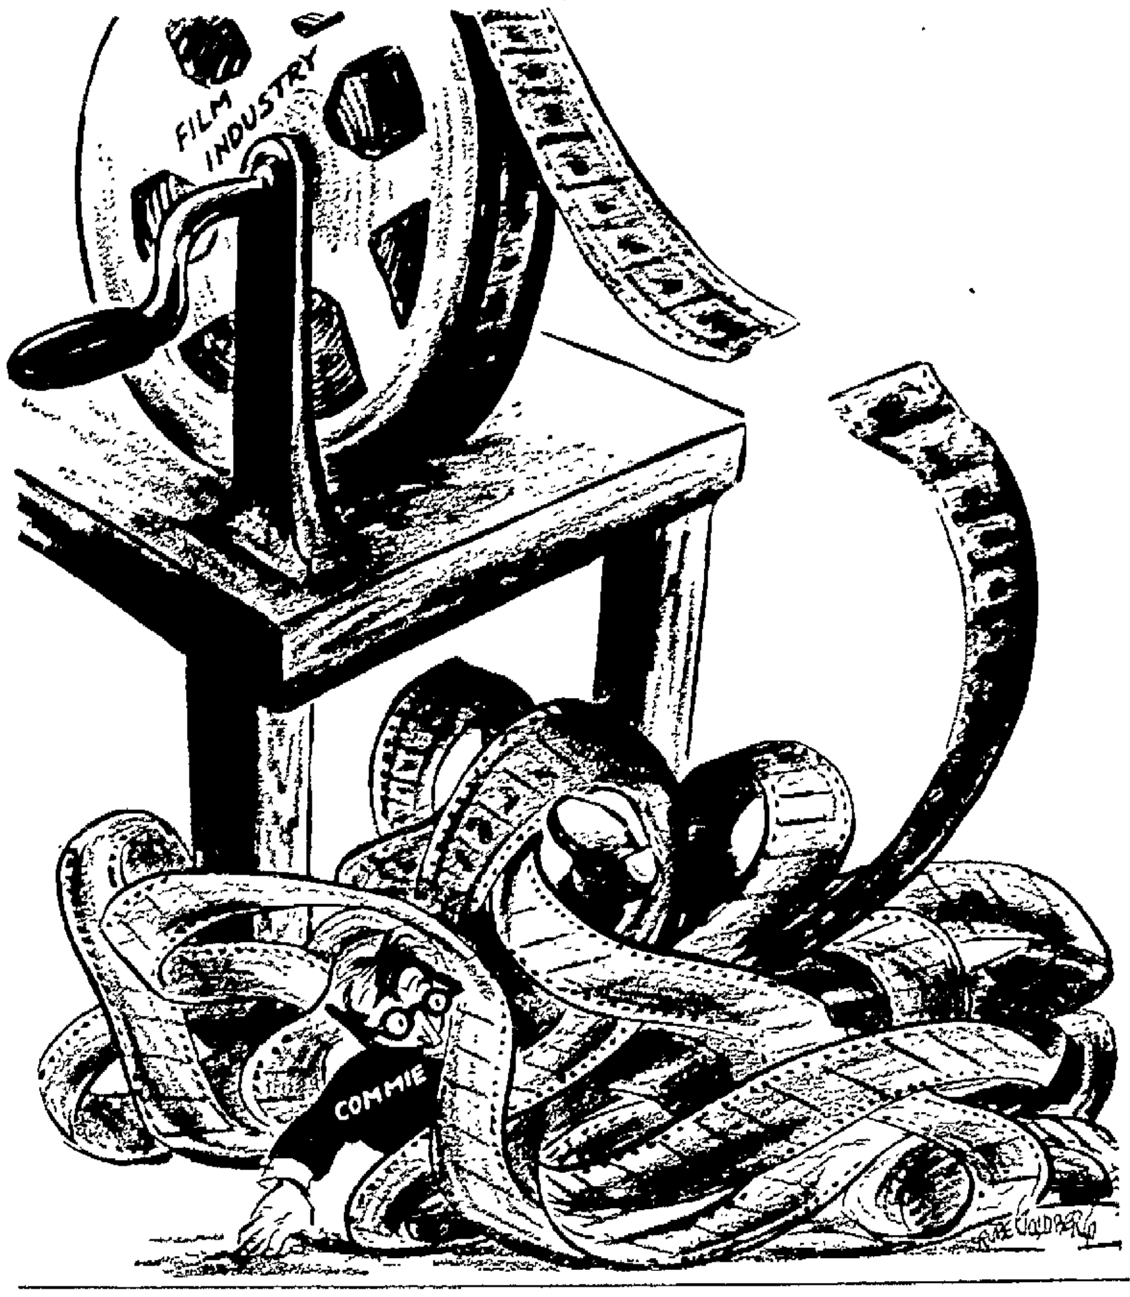
On the Cutting-Room Floor



From News of Other Years

TEN YEARS AGO

It was Thursday, Dec. 2, 1937.

Virtually brushing aside Gov. Martin L. Davey's relief program, the house taxation committee recommended passage of a bill to make from $2,000,000 to $2,500,000 immediately available for relief.

The state supreme court took under advisement the city of Marion's appeal in the court battle over city council's right to repeal the policemen's and firemen's pension system. One of the largest crowds of spectators in recent years was assembled for the one-hour hearing before the state court in Columbus.

Morrow county officers revealed that two Westfield township families had been swindled out of $4,400 in cash in the previous two weeks by a woman "faith healer" and companion.

Walter W. Wilson, 55, of Blaine avenue, Marion automobile dealer, died in the City hospital.

Mrs. E. W. Imbody of Concord avenue was hostess to Marion Circle, Child Conservation League. Associate hostesses were Mrs. K. J. Marble, Mrs. H. S. Kraner and Mrs. Cutler McGrew.

A class of 23 candidates was initiated and the annual inspection conducted by Dr. L. H. Whisler of Willard, at a meeting of Marion Lodge No. 32, B. P. O. Elks.

TWENTY YEARS AGO

It was Friday, Dec. 2, 1927.

Although danger of flood damage from heavy rain of the last week was past, eight roads in the southern and western section of Marion county was under water, County Surveyor Cecil R. Leavens reported.

Secretary of Commerce Herbert Hoover submitted his annual report for the fiscal year ended July 1, which showed that all previous records for volume of production and amount of imports and exports had been surpassed as a climax to six years of progress in business and industry. There had been little unemployment, the report stated, and wages were higher than anywhere in the world and the highest of any time in world history.

Mr. and Mrs. Ward H. Bones of East Church street and Mr. and Mrs. Harry Quigley of Cincinnati, former Marion residents, left for Phoenix, Ariz., where Mr. and Mrs. Bones expected to spend the winter. The trip was made in the private car of Mr. Quigley, an official of the New York Central railroad.

Mrs. Ida Uncapher was elected president of Marion Chapter, American Insurance Union.

The Pleasant Township Farm Woman's club gave a supper for husbands and families of the members at the township school building. The event was in honor of Mrs. S. B. Stowe, a former president of the club.

Palestine Partition Inevitable

By Walter Lippmann

THE partition of Palestine was as inevitable as was the partition of Ireland and of India, and for the same reasons. It is the way all empires end which have ruled over diverse communities.

The imperial power, when it can no longer be maintained, becomes divided among those who remain on the ground and in actual pososession of the various parts of the old empire.

This is what happened to the Turkish empire. Its successors are the Balkan nations and the Arab states, all of which came into existence as a result of the partition of the Turkish empire.

It happened also in the Austro-Hungarian empire. Its successors are Czechoslovakia, Austria, Hungary, Yugoslavia; they are the heirs of the partition of the empire of the Hapsburgs. Long before that it happened to the Spanish empire:

Our neighbors, the many Latin-American republics, are the heirs and successors of the Spanish empire which was partitioned at the beginning of the 19th century, and our own Monroe Doctrine was a declaration against the attempt to re-establish the Spanish empire.

The vote in the General Assembly of the United Nations was in the last analysis a recognition of the fact that, since Britain is no longer able to maintain an imperial peace in Palestine, the unified power which she has exercised must be divided among the communities which will remain after the British leave.

Won't Try the Impossible

The United Nations have had the wisdom not to attempt the impossible—namely, to create an artificial substitute for the unified British imperial rule. They have accepted all the unavoidable risks which always and everywhere are present when communities which have not been used to governing themselves are cut loose and must then govern themselves.

One of the Arab leaders has pointed out that in the line-up of the nations on the partition of Palestine, all the states of Asia were opposed or abstaining. That is true. But the array of the nations which voted for partition is perhaps more significant.

The United Kingdom abstained. But the old dominions of the British Commonwealth of Nations voted for partition. So also did France, the Netherlands and Belgium—all of them western nations with imperial interests.

When the peoples of Asia study the decision, they will see that its greatest significance is that it recognizes the fact that the time has passed when the destiny of Asia can be determined paternally by the great powers—that the time has come when the dependent peoples of Asia must rule themselves—even though the price is the blood, the sweat, and the tears which all peoples have paid who have achieved freedom.

The agreement in the UN, which represents a far greater unanimity than the numerical vote, could never have been reached if the proposal for Palestine had called for some sort of international government to replace the British rule. The agreement was possible because it does not require the international administration of Palestine, and all the confusion and contradictions which arise whenever the great powers attempt the impossible task of ruling jointly.

The partition means that the great powers are withdrawing from the internal administration of the communities of Palestine, are leaving it to the middle-sized and smaller nations to assist in the transfer of power to the Palestinian communities, and are, as great powers, limiting themselves to the prevention of international aggression across the new international frontiers of the Middle East.

The decision in the UN is the first important agreement between the Soviet Union and the western powers—particularly the United States. It is interesting to note, and I think instructive, that it is an agreement to withdraw from the interior of a country.

Experience shows us that it just is not possible for the great powers to collaborate in governing other countries—be it Korea, Austria or Germany. Their interests, their ideological differences, their traditions and temperaments prevent them from working on positive projects which call for teamwork and for close contact and daily give and take. We must not, I believe, expect collaboration of that kind, and almost certainly it has been a costly business to make the experience of trying to treat the whole complex, turbulent world as one world which could be put in order by a series of unanimous agreements among the three or four great powers.

The kind of agreement that is possible—and may in the end be attainable—is agreement to withdraw from constant contact in all the hot spots of the globe. That is, I believe, the basic pattern on which peace, if it can be made at all, must in the end be made.

Those who take this view will say that a two-power world is intolerable, and that the other states and nations, now submerged beneath the Soviet-American conflict, must be called back to redress the balance which Russia and America alone can never hope to achieve.

That, however much it may be misrepresented by its enemies and even by many of its ardent but uninformed supporters, was the original purpose of the Marshall plan.

This the only purpose for which it can conceivably be operated successfully.

Manville Plans

By Truman Twill

T. Manville, the traveling tomcat, has come through in the nick of time with another essay. This one, being a point of view on economics, probably belongs somewhere else than in column about things of no importance, but in that event, who would write today's column?

The Manville Plan

When a tomcat thinks about money, he thinks only of what money will buy—food, catnip, etc. He contributes nothing to society, except presence and the perpetuation of his species, meaning kittens. He does not work at anything and produces no wealth, due to the fact kittens are given away, with rare exceptions.

Therefore, I submit a proposition to you about the 85 cents you have been paying me for these essays. It is called the Manville Plan. Do not throw out the plan without looking at it carefully. This is how it would work.

I have no pockets to carry money in anyway so the 85 cents is a nuisance to me, besides being hard to explain when someone gets nosey and thinks it is funny for a cat to pay cash. The Manville Plan is to send you the bills for everything.

You will guarantee to pay the bills and I guarantee to be reasonable. If I do not do this you and I will have a talk, and if I do not convince you everything is reasonable, then I will find a new fellow to pay my bills.

I should have an identification tag, like the little tags you have around the house so you can go into a store and say, "Charge it please." I could wear this tag around my neck.

If I had an easy time and didn't have to buy anything you would not have to spend anything and could save money for my benefit later on, like a retirement plan. On the other hand, went on a spree, I'd have to explain what billed you for that I wasn't entitled to, which would be like an expense account. There are a lot of these down here in Florida, and my fe friends tell me fine stories about things they overhear.

I am not making up a new plan, but using plans already in existence. The idea is that you would guarantee to pay my reasonable expenses, and I would promise to be reasonable. We would do away with all this haggling over pennies. You wouldn't have to wonder when was going to ask for a raise, because I'd be sending you bills for what I thought I needed.

I think this would work out fine. The reason I have thought of the Manville Plan is because heard a human being say the other day that his boss would pay his expenses, he'd do best to hold them down, which he was to do without much success. This is all there is to say about the Manville Plan, and in the meantime please send the 85 cents.

Berlin Denazifies Street Names

By The Associated Press

BERLIN—The denazification and demilitarization of Berlin street names is proceeding.

Braunauerstrasse, named after Hitler's birthplace, has been changed to Sonnenallee, the avenue of sun. Belle Alliance platz, commemorating the Anglo-Prussian alliance against Napoleon, has been changed to Franz Nehring platz, honor of a victim of Fascism.

One hundred and fifty of 2,000 streets Berlin scheduled for change have been renamed so far. Guides to the city print both the old the new name in order to avoid confusion.

OHIO MOTHER ARRESTED ON NON-SUPPORT CHARGE

By The Associated Press

COLUMBUS, O., Dec. 2—Mrs. Wanda Patricia Herron, 23, today was under a Franklin county grand jury indictment charging non-support of her four children. Prosecutor Ralph J. Bartlett said the indictment was the first of its kind in the county.

Mrs. Herron is being held in Winston-Salem, N. C., and will be returned to Ohio, Bartlett said.

Her husband, Harry H. Herron, is in the Mansfield reformatory. He was convicted in 1944 of manslaughter in the death of an 18-year-old niece, at whom he allegedly threw a shoe.

Bartlett said Mrs. Herron was paroled from the Marysville reformatory last May and agreed to pay $14 a week to support her children, but so far has paid only $24. She had been sentenced in juvenile court on child neglect charges. Her fourth child was born in the reformatory.

OWNERS LIKE the KAISER and the FRAZER!

THEY WRITE FROM EVERYWHERE PRAISING PERFORMANCE, RIDE AND SERVICE

The Kaiser and the Frazer have been tried out in hundreds of millions of miles of motoring, by more than 115,000 owners. The verdict of these critical buyers is overwhelmingly favorable. Their experience adds up to such enthusiastic endorsement that more than half the sales we make result from owner recommendations!

Owners of Kaiser and Frazer cars write letters to Willow Run by the thousands, praising the performance, ease of control, roominess, economy and, above all, the ride that these great postwar automobiles give them. The following excerpts from unsolicited letters tell the whole story of why Kaiser and Frazer owners like these fine cars.

These Voluntary Statements Are Typical of Thousands

All Around Satisfaction—"I purchased the first Frazer car sold in our town. It is the best automobile I have ever owned or driven—and that takes in a goodly number."—From a Hamilton, Mont., Farmer.

Effortless Driving—"I have never experienced such performance and effortless driving as I have since I became the owner of a Kaiser—wonderful to handle in traffic."—From a San Marcos, Cal., State Forester.

The Best Ride of All—"I have driven my Frazer 8,247 miles. On a recent 2,780-mile trip through Canada I averaged 26.6 miles to the gallon. I have owned and operated many different makes of cars over a period of a great many years and never until I bought my Frazer have I owned a car that was so economical and I can truthfully say that this car gives the best ride of any automobile I have ever owned."—From a Cranston, R. I., Physician.

Safety—"For comfort and safety, I am convinced—after 10,000 miles—that no other car in any price range can compare with my Kaiser."—From a Mayfield, Ky., Sgt.

No Fatigue—"Driving my Frazer an average of 15 hours a day, I made the run from New York to San Francisco in 5½ days without the slightest fatigue. The road stability of the car is remarkable. Total absence of vibration. Absolute steadiness of the wheel."—From a Belgian Diplomat.

Service Accessibility—"I bought my Kaiser as I was sold on its workmanship, design and performance. Have just completed a 5,500-mile vacation trip and I like the lubrication layout and the way you can get at the engine. All parts that might need repair are more accessible than in any other car. These words are not only mine but those of service station attendants in many localities."—From a Peoria, Ill., Factory Supervisor.

Comfort—"After averaging 420 miles a day for 17 straight days on a round trip to California by way of Florida with my wife and three children, none of us were travel-fatigued when we got home. The Frazer is really a great car."—From a Trenton, Mich., Businessman.

Good Service—"A product is only as good as the service in back of it. My Kaiser has been well serviced everywhere, from the start, and I am perfectly satisfied."—From a Providence, R. I., Motor Vehicle Inspector.

Performance—"If any of your prospects want performance figures, here are a few: I just finished a 4,000-mile trip in my Frazer averaging above 20 miles per gallon at between 60 and 70 miles per hour. The car will hit 100 miles per hour anytime and will do 70 miles per hour in second gear. I can truthfully say that my car performs better as it gets older."—From a Laurel, Md., Businessman.

Roominess—"Friends who ride in my Kaiser are amazed at its roominess and at the smoothness of the ride."—From a Milwaukee, Wis., Retired Businessman.

Styling—"Our new Frazer has the more-expensive-car performance and styling and the less-expensive-car economy."—From a Hamilton, Ohio, Engineer.

Excellent Treatment—"We were on the list for 8 months when we took delivery of our Kaiser. In this day of 'under-the-table' deals, and 'accessories-or-else' policies, it is refreshing to report the excellent treatment we have had from your dealer."—From a Passaic, N. J., Businessman.

Most Satisfactory—"I want to thank you for selling me a Frazer. It is the most satisfactory car I have ever driven—and I have owned several different makes of cars in both the low-priced and the high-priced lines."—From a Boston, Mass., Insurance Executive.

ing labor organization, and permitting the Germans to make their decisions on such questions as nationalization, is the only sensible course We shall lose the struggle for Germany if we try to make the people of this ruined country behave as the most conservative Republicans rather vainly hope Americans may behave

Bill Will Be Sizeable

Besides this, there is one other truth that must also be grasped The job is going to be expensive for a while The British are without dollars, and their share of the German bill must be met from our treasury Maintaining a reasonable level of life in the West zones will cost nearly a billion dollars in 1948 Capital reconstruction will require another $350 million from our treasury. The money must be laid on the line Cheese paring is suicidal when the world future is at stake

At the same time, if these facts are squarely faced, we can go forward with boldness and hope The struggle for Germany is not of our making But it is a struggle which we must win And it is a struggle which we can win, if we enter it with determination, and wage it with full resources, with sound social imagination, and with good hearts.

Love's Perilous Path

By ADELE GARRISON

MY eyes flew questioningly to Olina's face at Mary's query. I knew that Mary's generous enthusiasm had carried her away, or she would have hesitated before proffering her wedding gown to Olina. There had been so much tension between the two girls in the old days, that my own nerves tensed as I watched Olina's face and waited for her answer.

But it came spontaneously and joyously.

"Oh, Mary, how wonderful!" she said. "I did so want to have a real wedding gown and veil when I married Georges, although I suppose it really doesn't matter. But—this is perfect! You are always so generous. But—are you really sure you want me to take it?"

"Do you think I would have offered it otherwise?" Mary countered, and then I saw a shadow creep into Olina's great lustrous eyes, so like her mother's which once had been the toast of many European courts.

"Mary," she said hesitatingly. "Georges never has seen that gown, has he?"

"Of course not," Mary said emphatically, and I saw a tinge of belligerence in her eyes. "It's been 'swathed in cotton wool' since my wedding day. Why?"

"I don't know if he'd like to know I wore your—somebody's else gown," she finished lamely.

There was the flare of temper in Mary's eyes for an instant. But it changed to pity immediately, and I knew she was intimately sorry for the girl facing her. But she masked her feeling, as she so well could, beneath skillful flippancy.

"Look here, 'Lina,'" she said. "As an old married woman, I shall have to give you a word of advice. I'll bet Aunt Madge would second me. It's just this. 'What a man doesn't know, can't hurt him.'"

Olina's eyes were bewildered.

"I-I-don't understand," she said.

"But I do," Mary countered. "Men are kittle creatures, the best of them. I can understand why Georges wouldn't want you to wear a gown that somebody else had worn, and if conditions weren't as they are we could go out and have one whipped up to you. But, you see, secrecy is the watchword for this party.

"I can think of another way out, though," she went on. "Your father-in-law has access to the most wonderful theatrical storage warehouse in the world. Have him take your mother over to it, and I'll bet he'll be able to find a wedding outfit, a gorgeous one, that's never been worn. I recall a production with one in it that never came off—the production, I mean," she amended with a gamin grin, "due—don't whisper this—to a fit of temperament on the part of your respected step-father-in-law. Tell your mother to feign ignorance about that flopped production, and I'll bet dear Philip will produce the gown. Georges wouldn't object to that, would he?"

"Oh, no!" Olina said happily. "Nobody else would have worn it, and my own people would provide it. You wonderful sister! You've solved another problem for me. I can't wait to tell Maman about it."

"And if that gown doesn't materialize," Mary said practically, "wear mine, and let Georges infer that it came from a theatrical warehouse. You won't be telling any lie. That's what I am doing virtually."

"I'll do whatever you say," Olina told her when she had finished laughing. "And now, I'm coming to the real reason for my coming down here. I want you to be my matron of honor. Faith is going to be my flower girl—isn't she, Auntie Madge?"

I believe that goes without saying," I said, smiling, but she had forgotten me the next instant.

"You won't say no, will you, Mary?" Olina pleaded. "I simply couldn't be married without you standing beside me.

"If only my brother, Pietro, were here to be Georges' best man!" she sighed. "But, as he isn't, won't Noel take his place?"

"'Lina, 'Lina!" Mary expostulated. "One question at a time! Let's take up the first proposition, that I be your matron of honor. My darling 'sister,' I feel greatly honored, and my answer is an unqualified 'yes.'"

Olina sprang from her chair, and wrapped Mary in a "bear hug," kissing her warmly. Then she came back to her seat, and looked a bit warily at her step-brother's wife.

"What about Noel as best man?" she asked.

Mary gave her a steady, tense look.

"Is that Georges' idea, or yours?" she asked.

LANA AND TY CALL IT OFF

By The United Press

HOLLYWOOD, Dec. 2 — Lana Turner and Tyrone Power today called off their year-long, much-publicized romance. They blamed the parting of a three-month separation while Power made a flying tour of Africa. The blond sweater girl said she and Power were not getting married and, in fact, had not even discussed marriage. Apparently contributing to the parting was the fact that Power, although separated for 14 months from his wife, French actress Annabella, still was not divorced from her.

The average production per farm worker in the United States increased more than one-third between 1939 and 1944.

'BIG BOY' IS JOLLY OLD CHAMP. British Judge Richard S. Dequincey (right) congratulates Claude Millwee, 18, of Ft. English Stock Judge To Select Grand Champion Steer Today

By The Associated Press

CHICAGO, Dec. 2—Richard De Quincey of Bodenham, Hereford, England, chief steer judge at the International Livestock Exposition, today had the task of selecting the nation's choicest and most costly chunk of beef.

After days of poking, slapping and punching hundreds of cattle, De Quincey had narrowed the field to approximately 90 steers, and some time today he was to give the nod of victory to the show's grand champion steer.

Steers of junior exhibitors have won the grand championship eight times since 1928 and in each instance the award went to a 4-H club boy or girl.

Hopes of the nation's youth this year rested with a future farmers of America member, Claude Millwee, 18, of Fort Cobb, Okla., whose 1,100 pound Shorthorn, Big Boy, was adjudged grand champion of the junior show.

Swine Competition Keen

While cattle exhibitors were vying for honors in the main arena, equally strong competition was going forward in a second floor pen where swine judges were nearing selection of the show's grand champion barrow.

In this contest, youth was represented by Miriam E. Meyer, 16-year-old Crescent City, Ill., 4-H club girl, whose 260 pound Chester White hog, Pal, won the grand championship of the junior competition.

The show's top prize winners will be sold at auction Thursday along with lesser winners.

Individual award winners included:

Fat Southdowns: Wether lambs —Ohio State university, first; pen of three wether lambs—Ohio State, first.

Swine: Fat Berkshires—Barrow, 200 to 230 pounds—Ohio State university, third. Barrow, 231 to 270 pounds—Ohio State, second. Pen of three barrows, 200 to 230 pounds—Ohio State, second. Five barrows, get of one sire—Ohio State, second.

Percherons: Mares 3 years and under 4—L. C. Ray and Son, Loudonville, O., second. Yearling filly (futurity)—L. C. Ray & Son, third. Get of sire—G. A. Dix, Delaware, O., second.

Breeding Polled Shorthorns: Summer senior yearlings—A. C. Schubert, Hamilton, O., first; Janesway Farms, Inc., Chillicothe, O., second.

"SUPER" LIGHTNING BOLT HITS COLLEGE

By The Associated Press

PITTSBURGH, Dec. 2—A "super" lightning bolt containing volts estimated in the millions hit the University of Pittsburgh's 42-story cathedral of learning on July 31. Westinghouse Electric Corp. engineers reported today.

Engineers said the charge—believed the mightiest ever recorded —consisted of five separate surges, at least one of which contained an estimated 345,000 amperes of electricity. This is equal to the current flowing into 300,000 homes.

The super-bolt, Westinghouse said, was recorded on special instruments installed as part of the Westinghouse long-range research program aimed at improving design of equipment to protect homes, factories and power lines.

Dr. E. L. Harder, in charge of the research, said the bolt struck a mast mounted on the cathedral, 535 feet above the ground, and traveled simultaneously down the mast and at least two of the four guy wires that held it in place.

The cathedral itself suffered no damage because the lightning easily moved to the ground through the steel framework.

The previous high recorded in the nation, Dr. Harder said, was a stroke of more than 160,000 amperes registered in 1941 by an instrument mounted atop the 585-foot smelter stack of the Anaconda Copper Mining Co., Butte, Mont.

LETTERS FROM OUR READERS

A GREAT RADIO PROGRAM

Editor of The Star: Marion has been greatly privileged to have the very splendid radio program, "The Greatest Story Every Told" brought to them over WMRN every Sunday evening at 6:30.

The contract under which the Goodyear Tire Co. sponsors the program over the ABC network ends Dec. 31, and the program faces a doubtful future unless Goodyear is convinced that there is a large listening audience for the broadcast.

I know there are many people who are enjoying the program and wish to have it continued. Most of us have not known that it needed our support. Let us all get busy with pen and paper, or postcard and write WMRN immediately. Also get Sunday school classes and organizations to send in letters of support. Let us tell them how much we appreciate this fine program and how much we want it continued. The time is short. Do it today.

FIRE CHIEF ORDERS OHIO SCHOOL CLOSED

By The Associated Press

NEWARK, O., Dec. 2—Hartzler grade school was closed today as workmen began correcting conditions which caused Fire Chief Stanley Shaw to order it padlocked as a "dangerous fire hazard."

Shaw and Superintendent of Schools Paul B. Edwards inspected the school yesterday. The fire chief told Edwards the school would reopen only "if corrective measures have been taken." Edwards ordered the work started immediately.

The chief said he would inspect the school again in three days.

Members of the Hartzler Parent-Teacher association pointed out the hazards to Shaw and Edwards. Conditions were so bad, Shaw said, that "the lives of 360 pupils were endangered."

"The boiler room was a rubble of oily rags, excelsior and stacks of waste paper," he reported. "Live electric wires were exposed where children could grab hold of 220 volts."

"While the committee was on the tour," he continued, "the fire alarm was sounded as a test. It was so weak children in two rooms failed to hear it, and had to be told the drill was in progress."

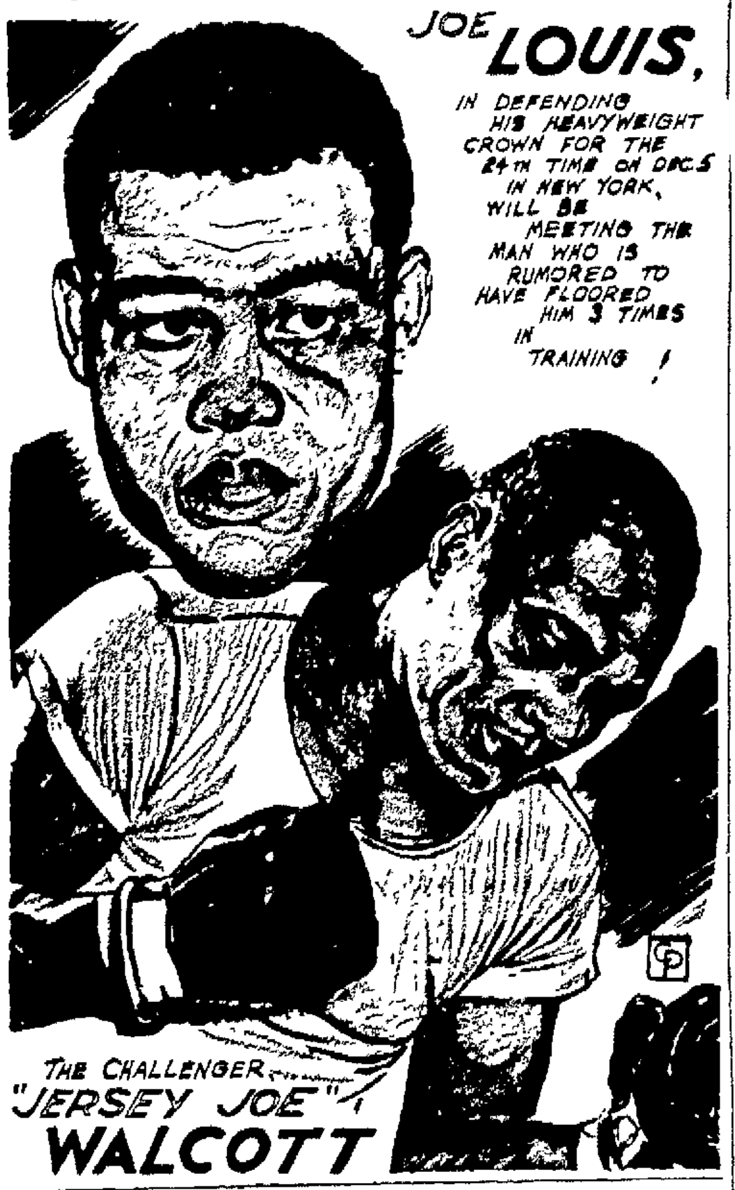
COUPLA GUYS NAMED JOE



JOE LOUIS,
IN DEFENDING HIS HEAVYWEIGHT CROWN FOR THE 24TH TIME ON DEC. 5 IN NEW YORK, WILL BE MEETING THE MAN WHO IS RUMORED TO HAVE FLOORED HIM 3 TIMES IN TRAINING !
THE CHALLENGER "JERSEY JOE" WALCOTT

Snatches of Sports

By HUGH FULLERTON JR.
AP Sportswriter

NEW YORK, Dec. 2—Dumb Dan Morgan, whose nickname is the greatest understatement of any given year and who always can find an angle favoring the underdog in any given fight, figures that Jersey Joe Walcott will give champion Joe Louis trouble in their title bout next Friday . . . You'll notice that Dan doesn't say Jersey Joe will win . . . Here's how he looks at it: "This feller Walcott has been the best heavyweight for the last two years; he hasn't been out of shape in two years . . . No heavyweight can jab him . . . he wants to box and he anticipates punches and slips them by moving his head like this" (By this time Morgan was illustrating the moves Walcott would make . . . "He feints and shifts better than Billy Conn did in his first fight with Louis. He'll worry Joe." . . . Dan collected his thoughts a moment then continued: "Louis is easy to hit, remember. I coached Max Schmeling before his first fight with Louis and I told him that Joe tries to jab for a round or two, then when that doesn't work, he tries and begins to hook. That's when Schmeling hit him with a right—and I tell you noboy can jab this Walcott"

AFTER PENN STATE was chosen to play Southern Methodist in the Cotton Bowl football game, last Saturday's broadcast of the S.M.U. Texas Christian game became a matter of absorbing interest at State College, Pa. . . . Among the listeners were Backfield Coach Al Michaels and his family . . . When the score was tied at 19-19 with a 30 seconds left to play and S.M.U.'s Doak Walker stepped up to try for the winning point, nine-year-old Tommy Michaels dropped to his knees and said "I'll pray that he makes the extra point" . . . "Get up,' shouted Al "If you want to pray, pray for us."

Chandler To Ask League Expansion, Says Scribe

By The Associated Press

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 2—A sports columnist says in today's San Francisco Examiner that Baseball Commissioner A. B. Chandler will recommend, on Dec. 8, expansion of the two major leagues to include San Francisco, Los Angeles, Oakland and Hollywood.

Prescott Sullivan's column says, "Chandler positively will make such a recommendation and it's better than an even money bet it will receive the blessing of the American and National leagues

"We are not privileged to divulge the source, but it is as close to Chandler as the buttons on his vest"

He predicted the west coast teams would play in the majors next season or, if not by then, "certainly by 1949 at the latest."

YANKS EYE RED SOX, COOK UP TRADE

Get Masterson from Senators; "Can't Stand Pat," Says Harris

By The Associated Press

MIAMI Fla, Dec. 2—The New York Yankees, disturbed by the sudden turn of events which labeled the bankrolled Boston Red Sox as the team to beat for the 1948 flag, have taken their first direct step toward making a staunch defense of their world championship.

Out of a maze of trade rumors involving nearly every major league team represented here, on the eve of the opening of the National Association's convention has come the news that the Yankees have completed a deal for pitcher Walter Masterson of the Washington Senators.

Manager Bucky Harris of the Yankees admitted that a deal for a starting pitcher was on the fire, but added that no official announcement would be made until the major league conclave which begins next Monday in New York.

Start Moving

"The Red Sox," in obtaining Junior Stephens, Jack Kramer and Ellis Kinder from the St Louis Browns, have become too tough. We can't afford a stand pat policy," Harris said.

The New York Giants, still searching for a pitcher, were offered southpaw Johnny Vandermeer by John Neun, manager of the Cincinnati Reds, who demanded a centerfielder in exchange It was said Manager Mel Ott of the Giants was willing to part with reserve outfielder Lloyd Gearhart, but Neun preferred Bobby Thomson or Carrol (Whitey) Lockman

Cincinnati also was reported talking a trade with the Chicago Cubs involving shortstop Eddie Miller, and Harry (Peanuts) Lowry, Cub outfielder The Boston Braves were ready to trade Dick Culler to the Cubs for a pitcher

Tribe Wants Pitcher

Bill Veeck and Lou Boudreau, president and manager of the Cleveland Indians, respectively, arrived in town last night, but reported they had not advanced past the conversational stage in their efforts to lure a pitcher and an outfielder from the Detroit Tigers.

On the business agenda, the International league held its annual meeting and followed the American association in opposing the Pacific Coast league's project for major-minor status

Charles Favored In News Bout Tonight

By The Associated Press

CLEVELAND, Dec. 2—Ezzard Charles, Cincinnati light heavyweight title contender, was a strong favorite to again defeat Fitzpatrick of Los Angeles tonight in the main bout of the Cleveland News toyshop fund show.

A crowd of some 13,000 was expected to witness the 12-round return match between the two.

In three other 10-rounders between middleweights, Steve Bellouse, New York, will tackle Billy Arnold, Philadelphia; Jimmy Edgar, Detroit, will face Chuck Hunter, Cleveland, and Sonny Horne, Youngstown, will battle Mickey Doyle, Cleveland.

The fights, incidentally, will be the first televised here.

WANTS GRID DRAFT LIKE BASEBALL'S

By The Associated Press

NEW YORK, Dec. 2 — Alexis Thompson, wealthy young owner of the National football league Philadelphia Eagles, suggests that the two professional leagues get together in a common draft, as is done in major league baseball, to halt what he calls "crazy bids"

Using the final session of the Football Writers association as a soapbox yesterday, Thompson proposed that the senior circuit get together with the All-America conference and draw up an agreement whereby a college player would be permitted to dicker with only one club.

MIAMI, TEXAS TECH SUN BOWL BOUND

By The Associated Press

OXFORD, O., Dec. 2 — Miami university's football Redskins were Sun Bowl-bound today, giving Ohio its second New Year's day bowl team in as many seasons

The school's athletic board voted formal acceptance of the Sun Bowl bid yesterday, and Coach Sid Gillman said he would start daily practices Friday for the Jan. 1 date with Texas Tech, border conference champions, at El Paso, Tex.

Cincinnati, 1947 Sun Bowl champion, was among the eight teams bowled over this season by the unbeaten but once tied Redskins. Xavier of Cincinnati tied Miami, 6-6.

Formal acceptance of the Sun Bowl offer came after a faculty advisory committee recommended the action. Miami President Ernest H. Hahne then wired C. D. Belding, chairman of the Sun Carnival team selection committee:

"Miami university is happy to accept the invitation to participate in the 14th annual bowl game Jan. 1, 1948. It is an honor to meet Texas Tech on this occasion."

Gillman's assistants, George Blackburn and Joe Madro watched Tech win the Sun Bowl bid and Border conference title last Saturday by upsetting Hardin-Simmons. 14-6.

The scouts said they were "very much impressed" by Tech's deceptive offensive, and Gillman said the scouting report indicated the Redskins have 'lot of work ahead to get ready for the game"

As the athletic board met to consider the bid yesterday Coach Gillman received a "feeler" telegram asking if Miami would be interested in playing San Diego State in the second annual Harbor Bowl game at San Diego, Jan. 1.

BATTLE ROYAL TO START THURSDAY'S MAT EVENTS

Another battle royal is slated for the Thursday night mat card at the Armory since last week's melee was washed up when two of the participants, Gentleman Dale Haddock and Indian Frank Clemens, couldn't make it to Marion after their car crashed in Flat Rock, Mich., on the way down.

Thursday's battle will feature Herb Parks, holder of the American Junior Heavyweight gold belt, Billy Rayburn, former gold belt winner, Billy Weidner, former midwest champ from Columbus, Billy Murray, the Canadian who did well here last week, and the old favorite Capt. Mike Mihalak

The second and third man thrown from the ring will meet in a one-hour semi-final match and the last two will wrestle in the two-hour main event.

A ten-minute preliminary will start at 8:30 p. m.

TRANSFER OF SCHOOL DISTRICT REQUESTED

Region North of Marion Wants in County Area.

Receipt of a request for a transfer of school territory from the Marion City School district to the Marion County School district and payment of bills for the month were major items of business to come before members of the city board of education yesterday afternoon at the school administration building.

The transfer involves an area on the north side of the city lying in Marion township and affects only a small group of children who would be provided transportation to the school building from their homes, whereas attending the city schools they are obliged to walk. The petition, presented by Elmer Beard, states it carries 41 signatures out of 46 voters residing in the territory involved. The petition will be forwarded to Dr. Clyde Hissong, director of education, who will determine whether or not the petition will be granted.

Upon the recommendation of Supt. F. E. Holt the board authorized the payment of bills in the amount of $16,154.48. These included the purchase of a half-ton Studebaker truck at a cost of $814, coal $1,690.97, repair of boiler at Vernon Junior High school $719.43, hot water heater at Harding Stadium $862.24 and $2,548.87 insurance on school property. Purchase of the truck on the lowest bid submitted to the board, included the turn-in of a used truck belonging to the board of education.

A reletting of the contract for the transportation of children to the crippled school was awarded to the Yellow Cab Co. whose bid was the lowest submitted.

Supt. Holt reported the return to active duty of Mrs. Elsie Runkle of the Edison Junior High staff and Mrs. Floy Wideman to her position as an instructor at Central Junior High school.

New York Stock Quotations

By The Associated Press

NEW YORK, Dec. 2—The selective recovery shift was resumed in today's stock market although many leaders were more or less indifferent. Gains of fractions predominated at a fairly active start. Dealings then tapered and minus signs began to appear here and there before midday.

Further bidding by professionals and others again was attributed to the belief that Monday's technical comeback could be extended before meeting important offerings.

Ahead most of the time were U. S. Steel, Bethlehem Steel, Chrysler, Santa Fe, U. S. Rubber, International Harvester, Boeing, Douglas Aircraft, Phelps Dodge and Philip Morris. Occasional losers included Republic Steel, General Motors, American Telephone, Western Union, Westinghouse, Du Pont and International Nickel.

American Society of Mechanical Engineers, Lilienthal said the weapons are being assembled at the isolated Los Alamos, N. M., laboratories where the first bomb was produced.

Yesterday the atomic energy commission disclosed a new proving grounds for atomic weapons is being created at remote Eniwetok Atoll, in the far Pacific.

Lilienthal showed the engineers a small piece of uranium metal.

"Only a few years ago there was not this much uranium metal in the world; today we use it by the ton," he said.

He said the nation has spent about $2,500,000,000 in the atomic enterprise.

"If this country really means business then within the next several years this total expenditure will increase to approximately $5,000,000,000," he added.

Explaining why the government recently has allowed a group of businessmen and engineers access to secret atomic information, Lillienthal said such information must be available to chosen groups if the country is to advance rapidly in developing atomic energy both for peaceful and military uses.

Head of the group which got an inside view of atomic secrets is James W. Parker, president and general manager of the Detroit Edison company.

Lilienthal said the 11 committee members, working with Parker, will make recommendations for obtaining "broader industrial and engineering participation," in atomic problems.

AID BILL

ence of the 245 house Republicans later today.

The senate beat down every major amendment before sending the emergency bill to the house. By a 56 to 30 vote last week it rejected a move to cut the overall authorization to $400,000,000.

The six "no" votes on final passage were cast by Senators Langer (R-ND), McKellar (D-Tenn), Moore (R-Okla), O'Daniel (D-Tex), Robertson (R-Wyo) and Taylor (D-Idaho).

As it stands now, the bill merely fixes a top limit on the amount of help that can be provided through next March 31 for Italy, France and Austria.

Bucyrus "50-Year Club" To Hear Gov. Herbert

BUCYRUS, Dec. 2 — Bucyrus Fifty Year club, an organization comprised of members who have completed 50 years of the same business in Bucyrus, will meet for the 17th consecutive year Dec. 9. W. A. Blicke will act as host at the banquet with Bucyrus Rotary club members among special guests. Mr. Blicke has secured as speaker Governor Thomas J. Herbert who will address the men on the topic, "The Last Fifty Years." Music by the Bucyrus Male chorus will be an added feature of the program.

Gov. Herbert's appearance will mark the third time an incumbent governor has addressed the club, Governors John W. Bricker and Frank J. Lausche having previously appeared on programs. A highlight of the evening will be the admittance to membership of three new Bucyrus veterans who have completed 50 years in the same business during the last year. The new members will be Dr. A. L. Higgins, dentist; I. I. Class, grocer, and Frank Rutter, W. A. Riddell shop employe.

PLAN LEGION MEET

BUCYRUS—Arrangements are in the making for the meeting in Bucyrus, January 25 of the American Legion's annual Fifth district mid-winter conference. I. D. Sawyer, Middletown, one of the department vice commanders, has consented to appear as one of the speakers and Major Gen. Robert S. Beightler, commander of the 37th Buckeye division, has been asked to appear as the other speaker.

BUILDERS CLASS MEETS

A meeting of the Builders class of the First Evangelical United Brethren church was held Tuesday night, Nov. 25, at the community house. Devotions were conducted by Mrs. Ethel Everly and contest awards were won by Mrs. Clara Bolander and Mrs. Don Hochstettler. Rev. and Mrs. Don Hochstettler were guests. Hosts and hostesses were Mr. and Mrs. Charles Williams, Mr. and Mrs. John Noel and Mr. and Mrs. Waldo Peddicord. A gift exchange will be held at the Christmas party in December.
